Subject: Arizona corruption is out of control

Team,

Recently, we learned that a Saudi agriculture company got a sweetheart deal for water usage in Arizona, courtesy of GOP Governor Doug Ducey and our State Land Department.

Saudi agriculture firm Fondomonte is leasing Arizona farmland to grow alfalfa to feed their cows in the Middle East. Not only did they get a sweetheart deal on the land from the state, at one-sixth the going market rate, but they are being allowed to pump out as much water as they want, free of charge. It would also appear that AZ's current GOP Attorney General Mark Brnovich has done nothing to investigate this scandal.

This is outrageous and exactly the kind of thing our Attorney General should be investigating and fighting against. Arizona farmers growing food for our families should not have to cut back their water supplies, while Ducey/Saudi sweetheart deals like this one are allowed.

Team, this is the type of stuff I promise to investigate, and if there's corruption, prosecute as Attorney General. Our current Attorney General is failing us and the Republican running against me will just be more of the status quo – Arizona families suffering while special interests profit. Can you donate $5 so we can have a real watchdog back in the AG's office?

This week, Arizona was told it was going to have to cut back 21 percent of its water usage from the Colorado River basin. That's an astounding rate of cutback and threatens our state's agriculture, our Native lands, and our communities.

So when Arizonans are forced to cut back and a foreign company gets to pump however much water they want for cows in Saudi Arabia, it gets me fired up.

A state report estimates this company pumps out enough water for 54,000 single-family homes in Arizona. That's bigger than the population of my hometown, Prescott, and would be more than all but 19 cities in Arizona!

Team, I promise if elected, I will investigate this deal and any other deal that prioritizes special interests over Arizonans. Can you donate $5 so I can get to work for Arizonans?

If you've saved your payment information with ActBlue Express, your donation will go through immediately.

I'm committed to fighting for you,

Kris Mayes
